ABOUT ME

www.maxharrisondirector.co.uk

I am a theatre director from the North West with a passion for making dynamic and challenging stories that give an emotional experience to an audience and put the actor's craft at the centre of the process. I trained as an actor at LAMDA and have since worked for seven years as a director, during which time I have been mentored by Mike Alfreds.

I run my own theatre company, Lidless Theatre. www.lidlesstheatre.com
